

Jingxing Malaysia Reaffirms Commitment to Operational Excellence, People Development and Sustainable Growth

Jingxing Holdings (M) Sdn Bhd recently convened its Town Hall under the theme “Charting a Course Through Challenges and Embracing Opportunities,” bringing together leadership and employees to reflect on progress, recognize contributions, and reinforce the company’s strategic priorities for continued growth and long-term value creation.

The gathering underscored Jingxing Holdings (M)’s commitment to transparent leadership communication, organizational alignment and a shared vision for the future. The event featured participation from the company’s senior leadership, including Mr. Zhu Zailong, Chairman and Mr. Wang Zhiming, Deputy Chairman, reflecting the importance of the occasion within the company’s broader development journey.

In his opening address, Mr Wang Zhiming, Deputy Chairman, highlighted the company’s resilience in navigating a dynamic operating environment while maintaining stable operations and strengthening internal collaboration. He expressed sincere appreciation to employees across the organization, recognizing the professionalism, dedication and sense of responsibility demonstrated by both local and international teams. He further emphasized the importance of cross-cultural collaboration, disciplined execution and continued capability building as key foundations for sustainable development.

Throughout the Town Hall, Jingxing Holdings (M) reaffirmed its focus on several core priorities: operational excellence across key functions, the advancement of safety and environmental stewardship, talent development, innovation and the strengthening of management systems. These themes reflect the company’s long-standing commitment to quality, efficiency and responsible growth in support of its long-term strategic direction.

The event also highlighted the company’s people-first culture through employee recognition initiatives and talent development programs that celebrate commitment, performance and positive contributions across the organization. By recognizing individual and team achievements, Jingxing Holdings (M) reinforced its belief that its people remain central to the company’s continued progress and success.

In his closing remarks, Mr Zhu Zailong, Chairman, conveyed his appreciation to the management team and all employees for their hard work and dedication. He reaffirmed the company’s confidence in its long-term direction and called on all employees to continue upholding high standards in technology development, management improvement, innovation, quality enhancement, operational efficiency and workplace safety. He also emphasized the importance of readiness, training and strong execution in supporting the company’s future development.

As Jingxing Holdings (M) looks ahead, the company remains focused on strengthening its capabilities, advancing operational readiness and building a resilient foundation for sustainable growth. Guided by its leadership and supported by the collective commitment of its workforce, Jingxing Holdings (M) will continue to pursue excellence and contribute meaningfully to the industry and the communities it serves.
